

Stoked on Life Volunteer Application

We are a nonprofit organization that services mental health and substance use disorder by offering surf therapy clinics to our participants in need. We are looking for committed volunteers to assist in our groups by helping to support our clients emotionally as well as physically in the ocean and on the land. We are also in need of assistance in setting up and breaking down for our groups each day. Please apply if you feel that you are a candidate for our SOL team!

Please email this form to Allison@stokedonlife.pb.com when you have fully completed and signed the volunteer application. Thank you!
